'Tomorrow is another day' is famous for being the last line of Margaret Mitchells's American Civil War novel Gone With The Wind, 1936: Scarlett O'Hara: "Tara. Home. I'll go home, and I'll think of some way to get him back. After all, tomorrow is another day" The expression joins "Fiddle-dee-dee!" and "Great balls of fire!" as lines spoken by Scarlett O'Hara that have become commonplace in the ...

Directed by Daniel Angeles. With Andrea Boehlke, Matt Davis, Addie Doyle, Elizabeth Evans. Lying her way through every minute of a post-college party, Maggie is relieved when her high school best friend, Dan, shows up. However, when Dan's girlfriend arrives, Maggie begins to realize just how far they have drifted, prompting the first honest conversation of the evening.
