The theme in this West African folk tale is that goodness, respect, and obedience are rewarded. Chinye is an African girl who lives with her stepmother Nkechi and stepsister Adanma. Nkechi and Adanma treat Chinye badly, making her do all the work. Sounds like Cinderella! One night they send Chinye out into the dangerous jungle to fetch water.

This beautifully well-written West African "Cinderella" folk tale and the lush and colorful pictures will excite and delight young folks. I love it as well and have read it to my class for the past two years. It is a good companion with other folk tales, Ananse stories from Africa and other versions of the Cinderella tale.
