The lifeli of a helmet has more to do with how often you wear it, how you treat it and how much you sweat in it, or wear hair product. But sitting on the shelf still robs you of some helmet life. So it's important to know the date of manufacturer. Australian-approved (AS/NZS 1698) helmets are supposed to have the date of manufacture sewn into the helmet liner.

My pelvis was broken in multiple places, my arm was badly broken, I had a broken rib and was unable to walk until around a week ago (Mid March 2020). I had zero injuries to my head, but I had clearly hit my head hard on the concrete, as the helmet was cracked on the back. I truly believed that this helmet did it's job and saved my life.
