estate schools and developing curriculum for forty years, we know how all this works – or fails to work. IN-RELEP is comprehensive in that it contains both key content review and testing practice. And the text review is Indiana-specific – not just simplistic national content, but terse, relevant and accurate Indiana laws and regulations presented as a well-organized set of state ‘ key point reviews ’ ideal for pre-test memorization. But let ’ s not dismiss the importance of the national content either. IN-RELEP ’ s national key point reviews are a succinct compression of tested national principles and practices that comprise the national portion of state license exams from coast to coast. Our content is drawn from our own national textbook, Principles of Real Estate Practice – one of the most widely used principles textbooks in the country. Finally, our national content, as well as our question selection, is further tailored to the state testing outline promulgated by PSI for Indiana. Thus the breadth and depth of the law reviews and test questions reflect the topic emphasis of your Indiana PSI license exam. A word about the test questions... IN-RELEP ' s testing practice section consists of ten national practice tests, nine state practice tests, and one state exam sample test. The practice tests are roughly 50 questions in length and the sample test is 100 questions. The test questions are designed to cover the content covered by the law reviews – which reinforces your learning of the
