The Son of An Earl (Order of the Second Sons) by Eleanor ...

An earl is addressed as "Right Honourable" and is styled "My Lord." His eldest son bears his father's second title, which is in most cases a viscountcy; where, as with Devon and Huntingdon, there is no second title, one using the family name may be assumed for convenience. The eldest son of an earl, whatever his title, always takes precedence immediately after the viscounts.
